

Instructions for Mt. Olive Scholarship Application for 2023-24 School Year

The Mount Olive Scholarship Committee is pleased to be able to award at least one new $1,000 scholarship for the 2023-24 academic year. Scholarships may be renewed in subsequent years if eligibility is maintained.

We believe it is the student's responsibility to submit information and correspond with Mt. Olive's Scholarship Committee. Except for information that is specifically requested from parents or your school, we require that you complete and submit the application yourself. You may, of course, seek guidance and advice from your parents, friends, and counselors.

Make Sure You Are Eligible to Apply

You are eligible to apply if you:

- are a high school senior or graduate planning to enroll (or already enrolled) in full-time undergraduate study at an accredited two-year or four-year college, university, or vocational-technical school for the entire upcoming academic year;
- cannot afford to continue your post-secondary education without financial assistance;
- can demonstrate your ability to succeed in a post-secondary education environment (including having and maintaining at least at 2.5 grade point average on a 4.0 scale);
- permanently reside in one of neighborhoods that surround Mt. Olive (See map on next page.) or are a Communicant or Baptized Member of Mt. Olive; and
- fully complete Mt. Olive's scholarship application and provide all requested information.

Student Essay

As part of your application, you must submit a type-written essay (no more than two pages) describing your interests, accomplishments, family background, educational goals, career goals, and why you should be considered for a scholarship.

How to Submit Your Application

To be eligible for a scholarship, you must live in one of the neighborhoods within the area outlined in red or be a baptized or communicant member of Mount Olive Lutheran Church.

If You Receive a Scholarship Award

Scholarship awards will be granted for a full academic year and may be applied to tuition, room, board, fees, books, or other costs – if such costs are billed/invoiced by the academic institution. Award checks will only be payable to the school and never made payable directly to the student or student's parents. Annual scholarship monies will be disbursed pro rata based on the academic term (quarter, trimester, semester, etc.) of the school being attended. If you are selected to receive a scholarship, you may be asked to provide the following:

- proof that you are or will be enrolled full time as defined by the learning institution;
- your most recent transcript showing a current and cumulative grade point average of at least 2.5 on a 4.0 scale; and
- your academic schedule for the coming term, including classes to be taken and credit hours to be received on completion.
